

ANNA MARIA VACATIONS

RAINY DAY GUIDE

Here's everything you need to know to have a great vacation even if it's raining on Anna Maria Island.

1. Have a Spa Day.

Rainy days are perfect for a little TLC. There are several spas on Anna Maria Island that have experienced massage therapists, hair stylists, nail stylists, and more. From relaxing seaweed wraps to getting a facial. You're sure to feel like a million bucks once you're done.

2. Watch a Movie at the Regal Oakmont Theater.

Just a short drive away from Anna Maria Island is the Regal Oakmont

Theater with movie showings of all the latest films. Enjoy concessions, reclining seats, and watching your favorite film stars on the silver screen. Visit the theater at 4901 Cortez Road West, Bradenton, FL.

3. Go Bowling at AMF Bowling Alley.

Bowling is the perfect family activity for a rainy day. AMF Bowling Alley has plenty of lanes for your family to enjoy, and they have shoes available for you to rent. The littlest ones can use lane bumpers for playing. Bowling is guaranteed to be a blast for the whole family.

4. Visit the Mote Marine Aquarium.

Get to know Florida wildlife better with a visit to the Mote Marine Aquarium. This activity is perfect for the whole family. Visit the aquarium at 1600 Ken Thompson Pkwy, Sarasota.

5. Dine at a local restaurant.

Enjoy dinner at one of our local restaurants. Anna Maria Island is famous for its seafood cuisine. Many restaurants catch fish locally. Check out our restaurant guide for a detailed list of local restaurants that you can visit on a rainy day.

6. Cozy up in your rental.

Many of our vacation homes are equipped with luxurious amenities like board games, Xbox, Netflix, DVD players, books, and more. You'll find that even a day in is still enjoyable on Anna Maria Island.

7. South Florida Museum

Enjoy a day at the Planetarium and Aquarium in downtown Bradenton. Get up close to manatees and lots of Florida sea creatures. Explore the stars in the planetarium. A day at the South Florida Museum is sure to be a lot of fun for the whole family! Visit the South Florida Museum at 201 10th St. W, Bradenton.

Stop by our office! We have lots of brochures and coupons for many attractions and events in the local area!

