

A man and a woman are walking along a wooden boardwalk that leads down to a sandy beach. The woman is wearing a white sleeveless top and a blue patterned skirt, and the man is wearing a white button-down shirt and khaki pants. They are both smiling and looking towards the ocean. In the foreground, there are large green leaves of a tropical plant. The background shows a wide sandy beach, some dunes with grass, and the ocean under a clear sky.

EXPERIENCE

Anna Maria Island

like a local annamaria.com

ISLAND CREPERIE

This cozy restaurant has all the nostalgia of authentic French dining with fresh baked croissants, homemade soups, and delicious crepes, of course.

Dine off the beaten path at this hidden gem located in the heart of Bradenton Beach at 127 Bridge Street.

Before you leave, you must try their Anna Maria Island Ice Cream. This unique dish features pears, vanilla icecream, strawberry jam, almonds, and whipped cream. Yum!

Address: 127 Bridge St, Bradenton Beach, FL 34217

COQUINA BAYWALK

The Coquina Baywalk at Leffis Key is one of the top free attractions in the Bradenton Beach area on the south end of Anna Maria Island at 2651 Gulf Drive South Bradenton Beach, FL. This incredible nature walk is located in the Leffis Key Preserve, one of the few remaining protected areas of the island.

It's your top choice for the next place to take the family after visiting Coquina Beach which is right next door! The Coquina Baywalk is packed with wildlife and it all can be viewed from a safe distance on an approximately one-mile long spacious and well-built wooden boardwalk.

Address: 2651 Gulf Drive South Bradenton Beach, FL.

THE BRIDGE TENDER INN

Sounds like a place to get your breakfast in bed, but you can also enjoy a drink by their outdoor Tiki bar. The Bridge Tender Inn is a hidden gem located on Bridge Street just across from The Bridge Street Pier. Visitors to this restaurant can enjoy live music, outdoor dining, and delicious food.

Address: 135 Bridge St, Bradenton Beach, FL 34217

SHINY FISH EMPORIUM

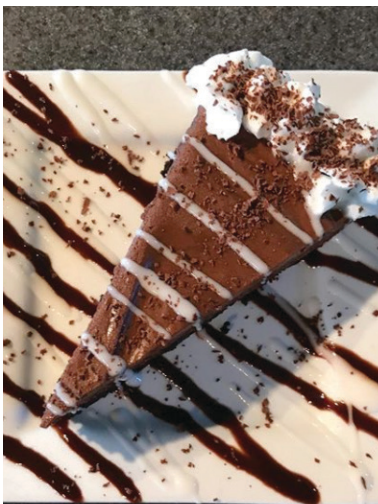

Shiny Fish Emporium is an artists dream come true. Visitors to this store can enjoy finding lots of unique toys and gifts.

From tropical scented candles, Glenda Geis handbags, and miniature surf boards are some of the treasures.

Visitors to this shop can hand-paint their own sand dollars or purchase some that are not painted at all.

Enjoy tropical cream while relaxing on a lounge.

Address: 306 Pine Ave, Anna Maria, FL 34216

HURRICANE HANKS

This fun restaurant has great food, cocktails, and craft beer in a laidback environment.

Dine in the heart of Anna Maria Island at Hurricane Hanks. You can even join them for their brunch featuring chicken and waffles, fish and chips, cubans, and more!

You're sure to have a blast at this down-to-earth

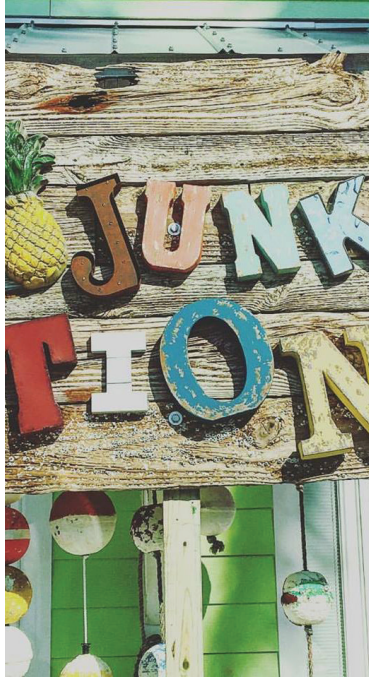

Address: 5346 Gulf Dr, Holmes Beach, FL 34217

MARTINIQUE BEACH

This beach is located at the end of 52nd Street in Holmes Beach, FL.

Just follow the trail from the street to the beach between Martinique North and South and park in the public parking spots.

PINEAPPLE JUNKTION

This unique antique store located on Anna Maria Island is a one-stop shop for collectors, treasure-seekers, designers, and anyone who loves a good find.

Enjoy lots of funky finds that you won't find anywhere else.

Address: 425 Pine Ave, Anna Maria, FL 34216

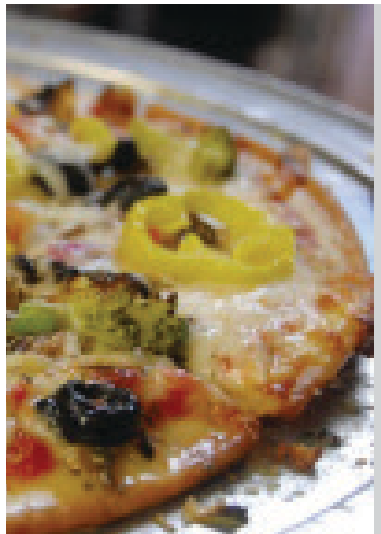

THE FEAST

This casual fine dining restaurant is sure to be a great experience! The Feast Restaurant opened in 2009 and has been serving up fantastic food on Anna Maria Island ever since. They offer lots of local and exotic cuisine alongside fresh seafood.

There's no better place to eat on the island if you want to eat like a local.

Address: 5406 Marina Dr, Holmes Beach, FL 34217

SLIM'S PLACE

Slim's Place is the local hangout on Anna Maria Island. Whether you're a resident, annual visitor, or one time guest of the Island, this restaurant is one of the best places in town to enjoy great food, cold drinks, and the best sports anywhere.

Address: 9701 Gulf Drive, Bradenton Beach, FL 34217